The Late Bishop E.D. Davis

Founder

(Presiding Prelate from 1929 to August 19, 2006)

Bishop Johnny J. Young, Ph.D. *Presiding
Prelate / Chief Apostle / Chief Executive Officer*

(August 19, 2006 to present)

THE EARLY HISTORY

(As conveyed by Mother Minnie Davis, the mother of Founder Bishop E.D. Davis, D.Min.)

In the year of our Lord, 1920, in the spring, in Winnsboro, Louisiana, Mother Davis was invited to a revival by some white neighbors who were saints. In those days in Louisiana, the white and Negro people didn't mix, even in church. I first took my oldest daughter in the buggy and went to a revival held in a tent that was in a rural area. Being a Negro, I could not get close to the tent. But from the distance I was, I could hear the Gospel. I realized that my life was not in accord with what I heard; therefore, my soul was stirred. Each and every night I got a chance, I went back to the tent, as far as I could get, and heard the gospel from night to night. I was not allowed to go to the altar in the tent, so one of the white sisters, Sister Sophia Armstrong, slipped me into her home to further instruct me and to tarry for the Holy Ghost. I did not receive the Holy Ghost that year, but I did not give up my conviction. Elder James L. Daniel, who is now gone to be with the Lord, heard the Gospel from the same people and received the baptism of the Holy Ghost. He came to our home and stayed with us a little while, and I continued to tarry until September, 1921, on a Friday night. I had my first real experience with the Lord. I had an experience on the tongues. This was an experience that even the time has not erased from my memory. Elder James Daniel was whipped by some white people in the community and was told to get away. This was to prevent more Negro people from hearing the Gospel. After he was saved, he was called into the ministry and began to preach to us. After he was ran away, I was the only Negro saved in the community; so I took my children, had them sit around in the house or under a tree and had service with them for two years. People said I was crazy, that I was a "holy roller", and that I was raising a house full of crazy children because I was teaching them the way of the Lord. I was not discouraged by the mean things that were said about me. I kept my conviction in Jesus.

One morning I was awakened and began to feel good in the spirit. I had begun to receive literature from the Church of God in Nashville, Tennessee. This particular morning, the Lord gave me to write to the headquarters about my condition; as I wrote, I was in the spirit. The National Convention was in progress at the time. When my letter was received, it was read to the entire convention. I was told later that the saints began to rejoice and speak in tongues and praise the Lord. After the convention was over, they sent Elder T. A. Sears, a preacher, to where I was and we began to have a wonderful time together.

We would search the scriptures daily and in our searching, we both found that the Church of God was the true name of the Church. This was the beginning of my knowledge of the Church of God. Elder T. A. Sears left and for seven years, I was without a leader. I continued on with the Lord and with my children. In 1935, Elder James Daniel came back to us and baptized me and my children in the name of the Lord Jesus. I moved from Winnsboro to Fort Necessity. Our church was located in Gilbert. Many times, we would walk to church, a distance of fifteen miles, twice on Sunday. We would get there in time for Sunday school and have service early and walk home by night. This we did Sunday after Sunday until we later moved.

1929-1967 – The Late Mother Minnie Davis served as the first National Mother.

In 1938, we moved to Pine Bluff, Arkansas. We bought a lot at 3100 West 11th St. and built a church. Many souls were saved; many were healed; many were delivered of various afflictions caused by Satan. Elder E. D. Davis, my son who received the baptism of the Holy Ghost in 1929, became our leader. In 1943, Elder E. D. Davis went to Delhi, Louisiana and started a church. Many were saved, delivered, and blessed of the Lord. In 1944, Elder E. D. Davis went to Dixon Mills Alabama and began a work there. Souls were saved, delivered and blessed of the Lord; a work that has stood until now.

In 1949, Elder E. D. Davis went to Prichard, Alabama and started a church there. The Church in Prichard became the National Headquarters, and the mother church, in later years.

The Church of God Pentecostal was organized and chartered by the state of Arkansas on September 8, 1950. In 1961, the mother church was moved to Prichard, Alabama and chartered. Bishop E. D. Davis became Senior Bishop.

1967-68 – Mother Emma Jackson became the 2nd National Mother.

1968-1993 – Mother Lucille Singleton served as the first National Supervisor.

1993-2008 – Mother Lucille Singleton became the 3rd International Mother

1993-2008 – Missionary Lucille Riddle served as the 2nd Women Supervisor.

1993-1996 – Missionary Sue Beville served as the Women Chairlady.

1996-2001 – Mother Stella Pearl Dunning-Davis served as 2nd Women Chairlady

2002-2006 – Mother Pearl Dairy became the 3rd Women Chairlady.

1993-2007 – Bishop Johnny J. Young served as National Secretary.

In 1991, Senior Bishop E.D. Davis received his Honorary Doctorate degree from MTI of Inglewood, California.

April 2002 – Senior Bishop E.D. Davis presented his vision to build a 5,000-seat Temple.

July 14, 2002 – Bishop E.D. Davis celebrated his 90th Birthday.

August 19, 2006 – Bishop E.D. Davis along with the National Council elected and appointed Bishop Johnny J. Young as the Senior Presiding Bishop. Council member, Bishop Dow Perry termed this appointment as a Joshua appointment as the second leader to lead the children of Israel. The Council unanimously charged Bishop Johnny Jasper Young to “take the Church of God Pentecostal to the next level and next dimension as their second leader in 78 years.

August 11, 2007 – An inaugural banquet will be held at the Mobile Convention Center where there will be an official Passing of the Baton from Founding Bishop E.D. Davis to Bishop Johnny J. Young.

October 8, 2007 – Our Founder the Late Bishop E.D. Davis went home to be with the Lord at the ripe age of 95.

October 20, 2007 – Our National Homegoing Celebration for our late founder was held at the Mobile Civic Center auditorium with a seating capacity of approximately 14, 000. This Funeral was the first to be held at this site.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Mission of The Church of God (Pentecostal), Incorporated is to ensure that every member, saint and disciples at large excel as productive saints of God in fulfilling the Great Commission of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

Acts 1:8 – But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth.

Matthews 28:18-20 – And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. ¹⁹ Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost:

²⁰ Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

PURPOSE

As a dynamic, vibrant, united, anointed, spirit-filled and growing organization of Churches proclaiming the Word of God, we purpose, “To Meet the Total Need of Man” physically, emotionally, and spiritually and go about throughout the United States of America and foreign countries making disciples of Christ by:

- Attracting & leading the unsaved to Christ.
- Encouraging saints to consecrate themselves to God’s purpose in their lives.
- Providing a positive climate in which personal spiritual growth and worship occur.
- Equipping, nurturing, mentoring, training and developing Believers for effective ministry to reach throughout the United States of America and foreign countries.

THE APOSTLE CREED

I believe in God the Father almighty, maker of heaven and Earth; and Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the virgin Mary, suffered by Pontius Pilate, was crucified dead and buried, the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God, the Father almighty; from thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; being baptized in Jesus Name; the communion of the saints; the forgiveness of sin; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

CONFESSION OF FAITH

I'm now releasing my faith, by confessing this to be the greatest day of my life. This is the day that the Lord has made; I will rejoice and be glad in it. I am a recreated being, "Old things have passed away and all things have become new." I am created into His glorious image and likeness: I am His workmanship and I am complete in Christ, I am full of His Spirit and divine power, I am God's property. I have been bought with the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Therefore, I am free from the curse of the law. Sin, Sickness, Poverty, Fear, Doubt, Worry, Confusion and all that Satan represents, shall not have any dominion over me. I am prospering in my spirit, my soul, my body, and my finances, for I am a liberated person. Jesus said that I would know the truth and the truth shall make me free.

I am standing fast, in the liberty wherein Christ has made me free. I am expecting God to meet all my needs, and to do super abundantly above all I dare to ask, hope, dream or desire in every area of my life. I speak directly to every mountain of satanic adversity in my life and command them to go! They cannot stand! They must go in Jesus Name! Through the abundance of God's grace, I have received the gift of righteousness. For I am the righteousness of God in Christ Jesus.

Praise the Lord! I am now reigning in this life by Christ Jesus. Today, I worship Him with all my heart, soul and strength. I lift up my voice and my hands, in praises and adoration to His glorious name for He is worthy of praise, and He has made me worthy to praise His name!

PREAMBLE

Greetings in the name of Jesus!

Praise the Lord, members of The Church of God (Pentecostal), Incorporated.

"Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over which the Holy Ghost hath made you Overseers to feed the Church of God, which He hath purchased with His own blood". Acts 20:28.

This book is dedicated to the memory of my mother, Minnie E. Davis who has been an influence in my life and first led me to the knowledge of Holiness. It was through her faithfulness to God and to her family that caused me to think on my way. One day, at the age of seventeen, I had a personal experience with Jesus and acknowledged him as my personal Savior. A few years later, I was called to the ministry to preach deliverance to lost souls, a calling I have enjoyed through the years.

Mother Minnie E. Davis proved to be faithful to God and to The Church of God Pentecostal until her death, August 14, 1967.

After searching the Scriptures, I was led to compile these things that you will find in the bounds of the covers of this book. Indeed, I am grateful to the Board of Bishops and Overseers. The wise man Solomon said, "In all thy getting, get understanding." This book will express our understanding and interpretation of the Sacred Scriptures.

Under the new leadership of Senior Bishop Johnny J. Young , the articles are being amended and was adopted and approved, unanimously by the National Council at its meeting on April 18, 2008 in Sacramento, California where National Finance chairman and National Trustees, Bishop Lumon C. William is our host Pastor.

THE CHANGE OF TITLE

The corporate title shall be The Church of God (Pentecostal), Incorporated. Its headquarters shall be 818 Telegraph Road, Prichard, Alabama 36610.

The International Corporate office is located at The Church of God Pentecostal – 109 West Buckthorn Street, Inglewood, California 90301.

THE CHURCH CONSTITUTION

We, the members of The Church of God (Pentecostal), Incorporated, believe the Holy Scriptures, the Old and New Testaments, to be an infallible rule of Christian faith and practice in accordance with the principles of our faith and government. We hereby modify our By-Laws and Constitution.

NAME OF THE CHURCH

The name of the Church shall be called The Church of God (Pentecostal), Incorporated; Acts 20:28. Pentecostal is not part of the name of the Bible church as such, but is to denote our belief in the experience of tongues as the day of Pentecost; Acts 2:4. We believe that tongues are for a sign; I Corinthians 14:22-"Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not..." and an evidence to them that believe. Those that believe know about the tongues and have had an experience of them and know what to expect. Therefore, they wait on the Lord until he confirms the Baptism of the Holy Ghost through the tongues. We find that whenever there was the descending of the Holy Ghost, it is connected with tongues; Acts 2:11; 10:46; 19:6.

The Staff of Bishops

The Bishops of the Church of God Pentecostal, Incorporated shall be appointed from the ranks of Ordained Elders. And they must be Holy men of God with full knowledge of the operation of the Spirit of God. They must have full knowledge of the administration of the general assembly. The appointment of a Bishop shall be by the Bishops Council by a majority team that is present and voting. The Office of Bishop shall be for as long as his life is in accord with the doctrine of Christ and in step with the regulation of the Church of God (Pentecostal), Incorporated.

The qualification shall be as recorded in I Timothy 3:1-5:

"This is a true saying, if a man desires the office of a Bishop, he desireth a good work. A Bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behavior, given to hospitality, apt to teach; not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous; one that ruleth well in his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity; (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the Church of God)?"

1. The Staff of Bishops and Bishop-Elects will participate in annual Recruitment Strategic Planning for growth and Evangelism as of April 2008 Council meeting.
2. Independent Fellowship Churches in each diocese will be contacted with an advertisement recruitment promotion invitation package within one month after each April Council meeting. (Effective 4/08)
3. In addition to the above qualifications ordained Elders and National Executive Elders must have proven record of Accountability, Commitment to the growth and development and proven evidence of established work in his diocese and National before being nominated from the staff of Bishops or Senior Bishop to be considered to become a candidate as Bishop-elect.

Approved - 04/18/08

ARTICLE 3

Board of Bishops

The Bishops shall organize as a Board and shall arrange for assignment to the members thereof, the work over which they shall have jurisdiction. The Board of Bishops shall have supervision of all boards, and the plan adopted by any board must have approval of the Board of Bishops (4/02)

Approved - 04/18/08

ARTICLE 4

Section A – Appointing and Removal of Bishops

A Bishop of the Church of God (Pentecostal), Incorporated is appointed by the staff of Bishops with the Chief Executive and Senior Bishop (dual office) presiding.

A Chief executive (state diocese or national) must be removed by the staff of Bishops and his removal must be by vote; the vote must be by majority of them that are present and voting. The reason for removal shall be by the discretion of the staff of Bishops.

Section A – The Requirement for Organizing a Church

The following procedure should be followed in setting in order a sister church of the Church of God (Pentecostal), Incorporated:

1. Whenever possible, there must always be a Board of Trustees, a Board of Deacons, a Sunday school, and a Youth Department for Church and community.
2. A local church must be organized under the direction of the State or diocese Bishop.
3. The Pastor shall be by appointment of the National Council with recommendation of the Diocese Bishop, unless the Pastor is a Founding Pastor. (April 17, 2009 / April 19, 2013)
4. There must at no time be any local by-laws that are contrary to the doctrine of the parent church.
5. Any contribution to be made to the local church by its members should be tithes and offerings, in accordance with 2nd Corinthians 9:6-8, (Matthew 23:23, Malachi 3:10 and Hebrews 7:9). "But this I say, he which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully, every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity; for God loveth a cheerful giver, and God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work."
6. The Local Church shall pay tithe of the tithe, monthly: 5% - National and 5% Diocese (April 17, 2009)
7. A church with less than seven (7) members will be considered as a "mission" for the first two (2) years. State or Diocese Bishop will evaluate the progress to determine its status after the second year and make a recommendation to the Council at its annual April Council meeting (4/02, 04/17/09).
8. Bishop E. D. Davis approved the plan as set in God's word to finance the Church through tithes and offerings. (4/12/79). The International Council approved the tithe of the Tithe concept – effective April 2011 in accordance with scripture and Article 26 – Section D.
9. The COGP believes that tithing is the Bible way for supporting the work of the Lord. 4/12/89.
10. Each Pastor should teach the congregation about tithing and stewardship.
11. Each Pastor should be the first example of a "tither".
12. Each Pastor should strive for 100% membership paying tithes and offering.
13. State or Diocese Bishops shall delegate a committee of Executive Elders to assist new Pastors as needed.
14. There should also be a committee formed to serve the new Pastor.

15. He must affirm aloud and sign a "Code of Conduct" as written in Article 14. should be forwarded to the International Headquarters and International (04/19/2013)
16. Before Real Estate (Real Property) is acquired, the Bishop or Pastor should contact the National Board of Trustees and the Director of Real Estate.
17. When it is a new state where The Church of God (Pentecostal) is not "Doing Business" as a foreign corporation, the Senior Bishop's designee or the General Chairman and Director of Real Estate must immediately take the appropriate steps to register the Church in that new state as a non-profit Ecclesiastical Corporation, and appoint a resident agent.

Section B – Procedure for Appointing of a Pastor

The implementation of this procedure will strengthen the capability of our organization to select Competent men of God who are qualified to do the job.

Our successful joint venture will be geared towards attracting leaders that will continue to rebuild and stabilize both the spiritual and economic base of this organization.

These procedures for appointing Pastors include a systematic approach for the placement of qualified, competent and experienced leaders to fill this position.

This procedure for Pastoral appointments will enable us to effectively facilitate the smooth transition of the office of Pastor by way of the National governing board.

1. All candidates for Pastoral appointment shall have served at least 3 years from receiving local minister license under a Pastor that has been a member of the COGP for at least 3 years.
2. Any candidate for the Pastorate must serve as a local minister for 3 years and an ordained Elder for 2 years in the COGP. He, in this capacity, must be actively and successfully engaged in ministerial work before applying for appointment/Pastorate.
3. He must be engaged in either Evangelistic or Pastoral ministry before being recommended for appointment/Pastorate.
4. No minister shall be recommended for an appointment to any board, state or national office, unless first having served faithfully and successfully as measured by his Pastor; with exceptions only as deemed acceptable by God's Will.
5. He must make full proof of his ability to preach, teach, cultivate and develop the people of God effectively.
6. All Elders shall be mentored, nurtured and trained prior to being promoted to the office of Pastor.
7. Pastors that have seceded from the organization shall not be allowed to hold any positions of authority for a period of at least two years upon their return. They must come before the International council before returning to a local assembly. ARTICLE 7

Seceding of Churches

No church or mission that is the property of or under the administration of the parent church of the Church of God (Pentecostal), Incorporated thereof shall at any time secede from the parent church. All properties (Real) shall at any and all times remain the property of the parent church. All personal properties that are connected with local churches shall not be removed without consent of the National Council. No Pastor shall at any time manipulate, speak negatively of the parent church, persuade, compel, or force members of a sister church to disband to create a church independent of the parent church. (8/14/82)

No Pastor who has been appointed to a Church of God Pentecostal, Inc., can take neither the Church, members, nor properties from that COGP at any time. But, if the Pastor decides to secede himself, he may do so after completion of the Pastoral exit form and clearance with the council. He may only take his personal items with the approval of the council. If all of the above grounds are not met, this will be cause for dis-fellowship of that Pastor.

If a Pastor joins in with the Church Of God Pentecostal and had an established Church prior to coming in the fellowship, he will not be required to give up what he previously had before becoming a part of the COGP, Incorporated. It would only be required to be divided 50/50 what was benefited while under the auspices of the COGP, Inc.

All properties that belong to the COGP, Incorporated will remain with the COGP, Incorporated.

If a Pastor who is the founder of his local Church decides he and the congregation wants to leave COGP, after meeting with the National Council, it may be granted based on these conditions:

1. If his assessments / Tithe of Tithe has been paid for the last five years.
2. If his members assessments / Tithe of Tithe has been paid for the last three years according to the annual yearly report forms.
3. If more than two-thirds of the membership is willing to follow him, even after he and his staff have met with the National Council.
4. If these criteria are met, he would be granted with the blessing of the National Council.
5. There shall be no requirement to turn in property deeds when the church is already established unless there has been financial support from the National when property was purchased (4/02).

Disfellowship Procedure

Romans 16:17 it says. Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offenses contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them.

1. The COGP will not fellowship with seceding churches that have not come before the council for clearance.
2. No Bishop, Pastor, Elder, Minister, Missionary, Deacon or any member who holds license or credentials from COGP should accept speaking engagements with the Churches who have not cleared through the council (04/05).
3. Churches that have cleared through the National Council and left in good standings will be considered for fellowship with the concurrence of the National Council on a case by case basis.

ARTICLE 8

Reporting of Church Property

There shall be an annual report to the general assembly from all churches of all properties (plant and real properties). This consists of all and any furniture and any things of value pertaining to the church. Along with the reporting shall be a price list of each item or group of items. Once a year it shall include the depreciation value. In the event the value of land increases, a special note shall be made of it and reported to the general assembly. All loans outstanding to the local churches shall be reported along with the amount of the repairs. A copy of all deeds and abstracts of deeds of any local church shall remain the property of the parent church and shall be sent to the general office and kept there. The annual reports are always due before the annual meeting in August.

All property owners shall have Multi-Peril Insurance on their property, separate from mortgage (8/14/82-1975); there shall be broad collision Insurance on all church vehicles.

Each church should have a copy of Insurance Policies submitted to the Headquarters.

Section A – Rental or Leasing

The Presiding Bishop of the state shall be responsible for any rental or lease property in that state which empowers him to have a say or jurisdiction over its administration. (Rental or Leasing Property). (8/14/82)

Section B – Liability Insurance

The General Church should purchase National liability insurance in addition to that of the local Church. (04/05)

Section C – Insurance of the Pastor, Elders and Officers (04/17/09)

1. Each Local Church should purchase a minimum insurance policy of $100,000 on their Pastor with Spouse / minor children being 50% Beneficiary and Church 50% beneficiary.
2. Each Local Church should purchase a minimum insurance policy of $50,000 on their Elders and Church officers with their spouse/ minor children being 50% beneficiary and Church 50% beneficiary.
3. Each local Church should purchase a minimum policy of $30,000 on each laity with spouse/ children being 50 % and Church 50% beneficiary.

ARTICLE 10

Section A – The fivefold Ministry

- The fivefold ministry was given by Jesus Christ to his Bride (Royal Priesthood) the Church.
- The fivefold ministry was given as servants to the Bride.
- The fivefold ministry consists (1) Apostles, (2) Prophets, (3) Evangelists, (4) Pastors, (5) Teachers. (Ephesians 4:11-17)
- The Church of God (Pentecostal) recognizes five orders in its ministerial ranks: (1) Licensed Minister, (2) Ordained Elder, (3) Bishop–Elect, and (4) Bishop (5) Chief Apostle.
- All five of these ministerial ranks are subject to the Law Making Body The Church Of God Pentecostal, Inc. [In accordance with Articles 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5].
- These orders are always attained in that chronological order with an unspecified period of time served in the first two ranks.
- The office of Bishop is a privileged rank and it is not an automatic promotion.
- The Bishop-Elect shall be promoted to the office of Bishop at the discretion of his Diocese Bishop and the Senior Bishop after proving himself not less than two years.
- The promotion to the rank of a Bishop should be held to the rules set by the Apostle Paul's writings to Timothy in I Timothy 3:1-9 and Titus 1:6-10 (4/02); (04/17/09)
- The Church of God Pentecostal, Incorporated recognizes the Senior Presiding Bishop and Chief Executive officer as the “Chief Apostle” in accordance with Article 1 of the Bylaws.
- The Chief Apostle Major role is to Pray, preach, teach, identify, recruit, train, mentor, nurture and develop leaders and pioneer and establish new works and new leaders.
- If an Apostle from another organization make a written application to be licensed in the Church of God Pentecostal; he can be considered to licensed only as an “Auxiliary Bishop” upon meeting all requirements and qualifications as set forth in scripture and in accordance to Articles 4, 6, 10, and 11 of Bylaws.
- The Prophet is one who speaks forth God’s Word to inspire, correct and motivate. The COGP, Inc. Board of Bishops and Council will consider licensing an Elder who has a calling from God, a desire and has served as an Elder faithfully for three or more years, maybe licensed as a “Prophet”.
- The Evangelist is one who shares Christ with outsiders and trains others to do so.
- The COGP, Inc. Board of Bishops and Council will consider licensing an Elder and a Missionary who has a calling from God, a desire and has served as an Elder or Missionary faithfully for three or more years faithfully may be licensed as an Evangelist with proven work as outlined in Article 34.

- The office of licensed National or International Evangelists are subject to & reports to his or her Pastor, Diocese Bishop and Chief Apostle.
- The Pastor is one who shepherds, guides, and guards God's people as they serve. The office of a Pastor is subject to and reports to the State and /or Diocese Bishop.
- The teacher is one who trains God's people in the truth and teaches others to do so. The office of a Teacher in COGP, Inc. is in conjunction with the office of Pastor.
- All five of these ranks are true ministerial positions, but each one gives certain privileges and powers according to its rank. All powers of each of these ranks are bound by the position of the General Assembly of the Church of God (Pentecostal), Incorporated. All ranks of ministers should be governed by the bounds of the decision of the General Assembly both in faith and practice; and should not at any time teach or practice anything contrary to the teaching (doctrine) authorized by this body.
- All ministers of all ranks are further bound by the exclusive ministerial loyalty to The Church of God (Pentecostal) and its programs.
- The Church of God (Pentecostal) does not allow its ministerial staff to hold credentials from any other organization, association, or body.
- Any minister from any one of the five-fold ministry ranks above who comes from another organization, association, or body and wishes to become united with the Church of God (Pentecostal) and is holding credentials of that organization from which he comes, will be required to sign the Code of Conduct-Article 14, complete application for license, interviewed by the Board of Bishops or the Executive Board of the Council and surrender his credentials before approval for licensing.

Updated / Approved April 19, 2013

Section B – The Ministers

1. A male who perceives and believes that he has been divinely called and anointed and sent to preach the Gospel of Christ shall be given a chance to prove his calling.
2. This minister shall be given local license after his initial message, which follows twelve (12) months of training.
3. The license will only identify his position in the church.
4. The minister should not sit in the pulpit and accept speaking engagements until licensed.
5. Ministers should sit near the front of Church during worship until licensed.
6. Local license does not permit a minister to perform weddings, eulogize funerals, or other official functions of the church, but serve directly under the guidance of an ordained Elder, until at such time he shall be presented before the board of Bishops and Overseers for Ordination.
7. No Minister shall apply for ordination but must be recommended by the Elder under whom he has served or the Bishop of that diocese.

Section C – Training Ministers

1. Upon accepting his call to the ministry, Pastors shall be responsible for training his minister(s) in staff development professional leadership BEFORE recommending him/them to the Council.
2. Pastors shall submit to their State or Diocese Bishop quarterly accountability reports with documentations of on-going training and development of the Ministers. (April 19, 2013)
3. Any minister who cannot administer Communion, Baptize, Marry, Bury, Eulogize a funeral, or is not subject and obedient, IS NOT READY to come before the Board.
4. The Oral Exam is just as important as the written exam.
5. Since The Church of God Pentecostal does not require any theological degree, it is very important that our brothers "master" our basic expectations of an ELDER.
6. All ministers shall receive at least one year of Bible Training prior to ordination. Correspondence courses can be provided by our current Bible Institutions (4/02).

- Special Notice: Coming Fall 2013 Online MTI courses will be available worldwide in the comfort of your home (April 19, 2013)

7. Pastors shall give their minister(s) an opportunity to actually do these ceremonies listed above in the Pastor's presence. Communion and Baptism could be done under the Pastor's guidance. (8/15/80)

Section D – The Elders

1. An Elder of The Church of God (Pentecostal), Incorporated is one who has graduated to the rank of being ordained by the Board of Bishops nationally.
2. He must be one who has first been licensed as a minister and whose work has proven him worthy to graduate to the rank of Elder.

3. An Elder must have the qualifications as recorded in Titus 1:6-9:

"If any be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not accused of riot or unruly. For a Bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God; not self-willed, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre; But a lover of hospitality, lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate; Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers."

I Peter 5:1-4...

"The Elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an Elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed: Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of ready mind; Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being examples to the flock. And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away."

Leadership of the church is not determined by the "law of the jungle" or by the "survival of the fittest," for these theories are inconsistent with the principles of God's Kingdom.

The Lord Jesus reproved His disciples for their desire to exercise lordship and authority over the people because their motives and desires corresponded to that of the Gentiles (Luke 22:25-27). They did not understand that it is Christ, Himself, as Head of the Church, who calls, equips and places His mantle of leadership on a particular person to lead the flock of God.

4. This person may be referred to and licensed as a Prophet, Evangelist, National Executive Elder, District Elder, and Senior Pastor "or" Presiding Elder.
5. The Elder, Prophet, Evangelist, Pastor, Teacher, Missionary and District Elder submits to the leadership of the State or Diocese Bishop. (April 19, 2013)
6. Most importantly, there must be leadership.
7. There must be a person anointed of God upon which falls the final decision of direction for each local assembly.
8. Without such leadership, there is confusion, frustration and chaos for God's people.
9. Although the Lord Jesus is the head of the Church, the scriptures also indicate that within a local church, having a plurality of Eldership, Christ will place a mantle of leadership upon one ELDER to direct the Elders, Deacons and congregation. (8/93)

Section E – The Office of the Elder

1. One of the greatest needs within a local church is that of structure and government. However, tragically, this has been one of contention and even division within the Body of Christ. Interestingly, everyone recognizes that there must be some form of government within a local church, but what form it should take is a point of much debate.
2. Jesus Christ is the Head of the Church and the scriptures state that the government is upon "His shoulders" (Isaiah 9:6).
3. Moreover, as the Head of the church, He appoints certain individuals with the responsibility of governing.
4. The scriptures indicate that Christ has specifically appointed Elders to rule and govern a local church. Why is there a need for a government?
5. Without government, there would be lawlessness, anarchy and disorder. (8/93)

Section F – District Elder

District Elder job description includes the following:

1. A district Elder should have four (4) years of Pastoral experience as a senior Pastor.
2. A district Elder shall meet all requirements in the above sections A, B, C, D, and E.

4. A district Elder should be able to Communicate and forge a cohesive and receptive relationship with each Pastor and congregation he serves.
5. A district Elder should submit quarterly accountability reports to the state or diocese Bishop.
6. As assigned by the diocese Bishop, travel throughout the assigned area of the Diocese to oversee the spiritual and temporal affairs of the Churches at least three times a year, or more if it deems necessary. Also to give the local Pastor his personal influence and assistance when there is a need.
7. To inform the Churches of their duties to the local church, state, diocese, and national work.
8. To have charge over all of the Evangelists and local Pastors in their state or area in the absence of the Bishop and/or his assistant.
9. To counsel with the Pastors in his state or area regarding their responsibilities needed.
10. To preside in the state or area meetings, as directed and assigned by the diocese or State Bishop.
 - a. Encourage the members in the state or area meetings to support their local churches with their faithful attendance and finances to maintain a working fellowship among the Pastors.

11. To assist the State and/or Diocese Bishop in collecting the finances for the diocese, state and national headquarters.
12. To mediate disputes involving Pastors and members upon the request of the Pastor and approved by the State and/or diocese Bishop.
13. As requested and directed by the State or diocese Bishop, take charge of a local Church within his state or area if the Pastor dies, resigns, becomes incapacitated, or is removed until another Pastor can be recommended for appointment by the diocese Bishop.
14. Recommendation of candidates must be ratified and approved by the National Council prior to installation as Pastor.

ARTICLE 12

Ministerial Discipline

Any rank of minister, teacher (Missionary), or laity may be counseled or disciplined for offenses against the moral and spiritual standards of the Church of God (Pentecostal), Inc., opposition to government of the Church, opposition to the official position of the Church as expressed and adopted by its Bishops and Council, opposition to its leaders, refusal to obey leaders (Hebrews 13:17), refusal to follow chain of Authority, failure to make financial support to local, diocese, and national causes, and failure to attend Diocese or National Convocation for two Consecutive years without just cause. The offenses listed below may also be used as cause for disciplinary action.

1. Any rank of minister, teacher, or laity found guilty of sexual sins, MORAL, REBELLION and any other serious violations of Church standards will be counseled and disciplined. The minister, teacher or laity of any rank will be withdrawn from ministry, silenced in the church and removed from any office, which he/she holds. All licenses will be revoked for a minimum of one year after he/she has proven to be completely delivered from such sins and conduct. He/she can be reinstated to ministry by recommendation of the local Pastor to Diocese Bishop. (To be silenced means to have no voice in any capacity whatsoever. You cannot preach, teach, perform ministerial duties, conduct revivals in any church, or vote on any decision or nominate anyone in the general Church - you may be asked to leave some sessions).
2. Any minister, teacher or laity who opposes or becomes opposed to the teaching, bylaws and practice of the declared policies of the Church is a cause for counseling and or disciplinary action as deemed necessary by the chain of authority.
3. Any woman who is not subject to her husband, her leaders, and maintain a position that is becoming to a woman as set forth by the Bishops and National Council according to the Bible (Eph. 5:22, II Timothy 2:11-12, Heb. 13:17) will be counseled and or disciplined by the chain of authority. The husband should love his wife as Christ loves the church and loves himself. Any husband in ministry who is not in accord with this shall be counseled or disciplined by the chain of authority (Ephesians 5:25, I Peter 3:7).
4. Any rank of minister, teacher, or laity who splits a congregation or causes a congregation to split, causes conflict in the smooth operation of the local, diocese or national church, conspire to alter the legal documents of his church or any of property owned by The Church of God (Pentecostal) Inc., take any monies that belongs to the Church without authorization, make false accusations against the leaders of the Church or its members, become rebellious or disobedient to leadership, will be brought before the diocese board or board of Bishops and National Council for counseling and disciplinary action. His/her license will be revoked and all privileges will be taken. If he/she has taken monies or properties, a full restitution will be made to the Church of God (Pentecostal), Inc. The Church or National Council will use whatever means available even to the court of law, if befitting by the Holy Ghost, to recover any and all properties and monies owed. Anyone stealing or taking from the church is not a brother, but considered a heathen and is in need of deliverance. Therefore, the law is for the lawless and we pray for his/her restoration.
5. Any rank of minister, teacher, or laity found supporting or promoting a minister, teacher or laity who has had his/her license revoked, being disciplined, or being disfellowshipped from The Church of God (Pentecostal) Incorporated will be brought before Diocese board or National Council.

6. The Board of Bishops and National Council of The Church of God (Pentecostal) Inc. does not recognize or approve of our ministers setting up independent congregations. Such ministers will be disciplined as deemed necessary by the board of Bishops and National Council.
7. Any minister, teacher, or laity under discipline shall have a letter of explanation mailed to the chairman and all Diocese Prelate Bishops.
8. When an ought is incurred with a brother, the brother with such ought should go to that brother alone for clarification, and should not verbalize accusations, hearsay, etc. before the Executive Council or among the Brotherhood (Matthew 18:15).
9. The Executive Council shall give time during the April Council Meeting and during the International Convocation for inquiring and studying the Word of God so corrections shall be made as revealed by the Holy Ghost (4/02).
10. In addition to the general expectations the Church of God Pentecostal, Inc. has for its members and leaders as outlined above, there are particular practices and conduct for which disciplinary action might be taken, to wit:
 - a. Conduct contrary to the Word of God.
 - b. Conduct prohibited by the General Rules
 - c. Violations of vows of church membership, ordination, Admission into Full Connection, and Consecration (of Bishops)
 - d. Violation of the Order and Discipline of the church.
 - e. Behavior which undermines the ministry of the church.
 - f. Practicing and dissemination doctrines contrary to the doctrines of the Church of God Pentecostal, Inc.
 - g. Sexual Harassment.
 - h. Conviction of a crime of moral turpitude against the State.

Note: A Pastor or an Elder who is silenced by the diocese Bishop must come before the National Council for a hearing to decide the case. (04-17-09)

Section A – Sexual Harassment Policy of the COGP, Inc. (April 2008).

We believe that the COGP, Inc. is part of the body of Christ, and that it must express itself in the world in light of the life and teachings of Jesus Christ. Jesus taught us many things both by Word and Example to be concerned for the welfare and well-being of others, to love our neighbors as ourselves and to be concerned for justice. For the Church to be silent in the face of need, injustice, and exploitation is to deny the Lord of the Church.

In light of our theological perspective, it is the intent of this policy to provide for an experience of grace, justice, and reconciliation for both the aggrieved and the respondent when sexual harassment and/or sexual misconduct is alleged or proven. The minister and those in authority in the Church are in a position of sacred trust. Any such sexual harassment and sexual misconduct is a violation of that sacred trust.

Sexual harassment harms not only the spiritual life of the church, but it also violates the rights of human beings to be free of unwarranted sexual imposition. It refers to behavior that is not welcomed, which is personally offensive, which debilitates morale and interferes with the ministerial or employment relationship. In turning to the minister, persons become vulnerable to the minister and trust that their vulnerability will be respected and not abused. Sexual harassment and sexual misconduct as a matter of Christian discipline, is totally unacceptable. Accordingly, sexual harassment and/or sexual misconduct by any person in the COGP, Inc. is a prohibited form of personal conduct. In light of the painfully traumatic and serious consequences that should result from an actionable offense, the COGP, Inc. shall not condone sexual harassment in any form. It is expected that all persons having leadership, supervisory, or managerial responsibilities for the governance of the Church, its ministry and ministries shall be prudent in judgment and assure an environment that would eliminate adverse sexual harassment and/or sexual misconduct.

The COGP, Inc., in recognition of biblical and moral principles, is committed to maintaining the highest ministerial and professional standards among all ordained and unordained ministers of COGP, Inc., as well as Church leaders, officers, members, staff and anyone who holds an official capacity in the church. It is the intent of the COGP, Inc. that all persons uphold these standards and assure the integrity of our Church ministry, leadership and administration. Any conduct that violates this trust may result in serious consequences.

ARTICLE 13

Procedure for Hearing

1. A minister, teacher or laity who believes he/she has been unjustly disciplined by their Pastor has a right to a hearing. You must notify your Pastor before going to any board. He/she must be heard by a board of three or more ordained Elders or Bishops preferably in his diocese where he was disciplined. He/she must be fully informed of the charges brought against him/her and the nature of these charges. He/she must be informed of the bylaws violation that has been committed. He/she has a right to face his/her accuser, to present testimony, to present witness. The accused has the right to appeal the decision of the diocese board to the National Board.
2. Any Pastor, Bishop-Elect, Bishop, charged with violation of the bylaws or committing an offense to the church must be tried. Pastors can be tried by the Diocese board and appeal the decision to the National Board. The National Board will try Bishop-Elect and Bishops and their ruling will stand. He will be notified by certified letter of the charges/violations being brought against him and the date of his hearing. If he refuses to come before the board he will be silenced, his license will be revoked, he will be disfellowshipped if necessary, and all credentials should be submitted to the national secretary or chairman within 3-5 days. He has a right to face his accuser, to present testimony, and to present witnesses. If found guilty of the charges, he can be restored if he repents. He may or may not regain his position depending upon the ruling of the National Board. If he is found not guilty, he will be fully restored to his position in the church.
3. Any minister, teacher or laity who does not follow the chain of authority may not be heard. You must notify your Pastor that you are requesting a hearing at which point he will arrange for you to proceed further. If your Pastor fails to honor your request within fourteen (14) days after notification, you have a right to go to your State or Diocese Bishop who will in turn arrange for your hearing and contact the Pastor to see what is causing the delay; and if necessary, counsel him. The following is a chain of authority:
 1. Auxiliary Leader (Not always applicable)
 2. Pastor
 3. State Bishop
 4. Diocese Board
 5. Diocese Bishop
 6. National Chairman
 7. National Council
 8. Senior Presiding Bishop of COGP, Inc.

- Verification of following these procedures shall be validated in unity. If you have not followed this procedure, you will be sent back to the beginning of the chain of authority (4/02) (04/05)

Anyone who does not exercise their rights within the timelines stated above will be heard only at the discretion of the National Council and could be denied a hearing depending upon the National Council review of the case.

Anyone who is to appear before the National Council will be escorted only by the Director of Adjutants (or his designee).

Good Business Practices & Leadership

1. Disclaimer of records: These records and practices have been compiled for the sole use of COGP, Inc. members and officers. Please guard against its unauthorized use by others. (4/02)
2. Bishops and Pastors will not be held accountable for clandestine business not brought to the forefront prior to its negative exposure. (I.e. Foreclosures, Liens, etc.) (4/02)
3. Jurisdictions and Pastors will not be placed under demand to comply with an idea or matter that has not been given prior sanction by the Executive Council. (4/02)
4. No Officer of the General Church has the authority to place himself or herself in a position that has not followed the parliament and guidelines of the General Church. (4/02)
5. All new Pastors, as of 2002, are required to participate in some form of staff development, professional growth, leadership workshop, or at least one continuing education course for the first 5 years of Pastoral Leadership.
6. All Pastors are required to attend a three (3) hour Bible Study Institute each year at the National Convocation or the International April Council meeting, annually. (4/2011)

Section A – Business Transaction

1. The Pastor shall serve as the CEO of his local Church and decision-making authority as long as his life is in accordance with the Holy Bible and the Bylaws of the Church of God Pentecostal, Inc. (4/02; 7/15)
2. The Pastor shall approve or disapprove all meetings and/or activities before anyone announces or invites guests to the local church under his jurisdiction.
3. Each Pastor will be required to attend an Annual Sexual Harassment Certification Workshop as of August 2008 in accordance with the Sexual Harassment Policy as outlined in Article 12- Section A.
4. The Pastor shall appoint a Pastor's aide committee to oversee his Pastoral needs.
5. All Pastors should strive to become full-time Pastors. Full-time Pastors should be financially compensated for the work of the ministry by the local church. If necessary, a team appointed by the National council of three (3) with experience in finance, budgeting etc. would come and assist the local church for the purpose of a smooth transition. (4/02) All Pastors should give their support to the succeeding International Bishop in National Convocation.
6. All full time Pastors with a membership of at least 100 members should be compensated for a minimum of $4,000 per month. Full time Pastors with a membership of 50-99 members should be compensated for a minimum of $2,500 per month.
7. Compensation may be in the form of non- taxable substantiated housing allowance with an annual resolution from the local governing board.
8. In addition to the above compensation full time Pastors should have a monthly Pastoral day whereby the membership gives a generous, free will Pastoral offering and an annual Appreciation day given by the membership.

9. Each Pastor should have a life insurance policy with a premium paid by the local church. The Church and the wife should be the beneficiaries on an agreed percentage by the Pastor and the local church governing board.
10. The Pastor shall have a P. O. Box and safe deposit box as early as possible to have good business practices. (4/13/79)
11. The Pastor's personal money should be loaned to the people (church) by making a note for all personal money and the church shall pay it back. Be sure to register the "note". When the obligation is paid, clear the lien. If you "give" $10,000; let it be a gift. (8/14/79)
12. Each Pastor should be the leading example of a consistent tither of ALL of his increase to the local church.
13. Each Pastor is to teach and lead their church into a 100% tithing membership.
14. Each Pastor should ensure that their local church finance committee subscribes to the tithe of tithe concept paid to the diocese and national treasurer at an equal amount of 5% each. For each fiscal year, beginning August 31st to July 30th, tithe of tithe should be submitted (5% each) to the diocese and national by the 10th of each month.

Example: If the local church received $10,000 in tithes income for the month of August 2007, $1,000 would be its tithe of the tithe for August 2007... $500 will go to the diocese treasury and $500 will go to the National Treasury by the 10th of September 2007 and the 10th of each month thereafter.
15. Tithe of the tithe contribution to the national and diocese is in lieu of annual diocese and national assessments. Our Senior Bishop Young has over 25 years proven record at the Church that this system works to alleviate extra financial burdens on membership for assessments after they have given tithes and offering to their local church and has an annual average record of over $24,000 tithe of tithe income with less than 100 consistent tithers.
16. Tithe of the tithe from each local church will cause each diocese and national to expand, rebuild, provide outreach, grow and provide for staff development, integrity, to be the lender, not the borrower and a spirit of Excellence throughout the COGP, Inc.
17. The Pastor shall operate financially upon what he can live with. (4/13/79)
18. The local church is required to take care of the Pastor's expense to the National Convocation and National Council meeting when required to attend.
19. The Pastor shall submit an Annual Report to the headquarters including the following:
 - A. Inventory Form (when requested)
 - B. Membership Report
 - C. Application for Licenses with a written letter of recommendation.

Section C – IRS Rulings

Internal Revenue Service Code for Non-Profit Organizations

IRS Compliance Mandates for Local Churches as well as the General assembly during Convocations, Women Convention, Youth Congress, etc.

Because the Church is liable for legal violations occurring in their financial records,

- 1) Every local church as well as International and national convocations and international auxiliaries should maintain financial records that accurately reflect income and disbursements, along with documentation to verify all such transactions.

It is important that these financial records do not reflect private inurement nor unrelated business income.

Member's/Non-member's contributions should be verified by offering envelopes; therefore, all offering envelopes should be kept on file for a period of 3-5 years.

Disbursements should be justified by receipts, canceled checks, etc.

- 2) As a means of good business practice, every local church should maintain a checking and a savings account. Multiple treasuries and accounts handled by different persons are a reflection of improper accountability and embezzlement for the local church. There should be no hand-held treasuries. All National, Diocese, and Local checking and savings and any other accounts shall have a two signature requirement.

End of the Year Mandates

Annual Statements of Financial Contributions should be prepared and issued to every member/person who gave financial support to the local church. The church is liable for reporting to the IRS monies of anyone who receives compensation from the Church.

W-2's should be prepared for all persons who are employed by the local church.

1099's MISC should be prepared for all persons (non-employees of the church) who received income of $600 or more for the local church. This includes offerings given to visiting Pastors, speakers, Evangelists, professional singers, independent contractors, etc.

Annual Important Tax Dates

January 31 During January, all employees should be given their copies of Form W-2 as soon as possible. The due date is January 31.

Due date for employers to file Form 941 (or 941E) for quarterly income and social security (FICA) taxes withheld from employee's salaries in October, November and December.

Due date for employers subject to federal unemployment tax (FUTA) to file annual returns.

Give annual information statements to recipients of certain payments made by a church or NPO during the year (a copy of the appropriate Form 1099 may be used). The types of payments that are covered include:

- Compensation for workers who are not considered employees

- Interest
- Real Estate Transactions Rent
- Royalties
- Annuity Payments

February 28 File Form W-3, along with Copy A of Form W-2s issued

File an information return (Form 1099) for certain payments that a church or NPO made.

April 30

Due date for employers to file Form 941 (or 941E) for quarterly income and social security (FICA) taxes withheld from employee's salaries in January, February, and March.

May 15

Due date for Form 990 and 990-T for the calendar-year; churches and Knops are required to file these forms.

July 31

Due date for employers to file Form 941 (or 941E) for quarterly income and social security (FICA) taxes withheld from employee's salaries in April, May and June.

November 2

Due date for employers to file Form 941 (or 941E) for quarterly income and social security (FICA) taxes withheld from employee's salaries in July, August and September.

Negligence or disregard to IRS Tax Laws is legal grounds for prosecution, fines up to $100,000 or more, repayment of contributions and legally closing down the church. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact our National Accountant. If you need professional assistance in bringing your financial records into compliance with the IRS Tax Code, the National Accountant will gladly come to your church and offer their services for a minimal fee. There will be an IRS representative updating us on changes/new tax laws, annually, at the April Council meeting. (April 2008)

Section A – The Procedure for Appointing a Deacon

Deacons shall be sought out and chosen from among the saved, male population of members and appointed to this office by his Pastor. A Deacon must first prove himself to possess the qualities as expressly written in Acts 6:3. Secondly, it is understood that a Deacon, once appointed, tried and elevated, is to be examined to hold a license for this office.

"Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business."

Section B – Duties of the Deacon

He shall...

1. Assist the Pastor in matters pertaining to the church such as care and upkeep.
2. Serve tables. (Receiving offerings)
3. Stand in and bring forth the Word of God in the absence of the Pastor, if necessary
4. Open services with prayer and devotion.
5. Serve as a Trustee as requested.
6. Understand and have knowledge of facilities.
7. Assist in the upkeep of facilities; i.e. maintenance, repairs, etc.
8. Be able to assist and administer communion
9. Visit the sick and shut-in
10. Serve on the finance committee as requested and needed.
11. Have some knowledge of Church business
12. Understand the operation of the local Church

I Timothy 3:8

"Likewise must the Deacons be grave, not double tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre; holding the mystery of the faith in pure conscience."

A Deacon must be first put on trial for a period of one year. Should he prove faithful, he shall be duly ordained by his local Pastor. To ordain a Deacon, he shall be anointed with oil and prayer should be offered over him. He should then be commended to the job of a Deacon.

Acceptance of Membership

We believe that acceptance of membership into the Church of God Pentecostal shall be regeneration as is recorded in St. John 3:3 - "Jesus answered and said unto him, verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man, be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

St. John 3:5 - "Jesus answered, verily, verily I say unto thee, except a man be born of the water and of the spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God."

I Peter 1:23 - "Being born not of corrupted seed but of incorrupted by the Word of God which liveth and abideth forever."

Should there be one who comes to any of the Churches of God Pentecostal and has not had an experience of salvation with the gift of the Holy Ghost with tongues and desire to become a member, he shall be taken as a follower (name, address, and telephone). There must first be an expression from this person of a desire to become a member. At the time he or she receives the Holy Ghost with tongues, he or she must be accepted as a full member and given the right hand of fellowship; after which the Pastor will read the doctrine of the Church of God Pentecostal, Incorporated.

The membership of the local church shall consist of all who have been set in order as a church by those authorized to do so; having confessed their faith in Christ as their personal Savior, being filled with the Holy Ghost, believing in the doctrine of our church, and willing to be ruled by our government.

The Bishop having jurisdiction over that state or diocese should set the local church in order.

Section A - Loyalty

There are certain attitudes and practices supported by scriptures that The Church of God (Pentecostal), Inc. considers essential to a member's loyalty to the church. The first of these is an acceptance of the teachings and doctrines of the church; a basic agreement is essential to church membership: acceptance of the Word to repent and be baptized in the Name of Jesus and full agreement is necessary for service in official capacities in the church. This full agreement is when a member has received the gift of the Holy Ghost with evidence of speaking in tongues as the Spirit gives utterance as recorded in Acts 2:4.

A. Those members who are not loyal to The Church of God (Pentecostal) teachings should not and will not be allowed to serve on official boards of local churches.

B. That the second point of loyalty is being consistent in church attendance.

Members who are inconsistent in their attendance of the regular services at their local church for a long period of time should be counseled by the Pastor and at the Pastor's discretion for the purpose of finding out what the problem may be; and, to give assistance in the problem area. Should the non-attendance continue, they should be relieved of their duties.

1. The third point of loyalty is tithing. All members of The Church of God (Pentecostal), Inc. should pay tithes into the local church of their membership. Genesis 14:18-20; 28:20-22, Malachi 3:10, Luke 11:42, I Corinthians 9:6-9; 16:2, Hebrews 7:1-21. 4/13/89

2. No member shall call any meeting at any time without approval from the Pastor or Diocese Bishop. A member who does not follow chain of command will be sent back to the beginning as outlined in Article 14 B- Note.

Section B – Transfer of Membership

When a member transfers to another church within the Church of God Pentecostal, Inc. there shall be a letter of acknowledgement from the previous Pastor. (4/02)

Section C – Determination of Members

COGP, Inc. recognizes three (3) classes of members; “Full-fledged and Active,” “Provisional,” and “Non-Active.” While no one is denied in becoming a member of COGP, Inc., full-fledged and active members are those in which the resources of the ministry are generally available.

The class of member designation is determined primarily by being full of the Holy Ghost, faithful attendance, participation and in the giving of tithes and offerings. That is, their financial support over a consistent period of time as well as their involvement in the various ministries of the local Church.

As each individual and/or family’s financial resources are different, membership class is not determined on the actual amount of the tithes but on the basis that the member or family does participate in tithing according to Malachi 3:8-10.

One method that God uses today to pour His blessings upon His People is the return from the tithe. Is it any wonder that this is the one area Satan has hindered the majority of Christians from receiving God’s promised blessings? Almost every Christian, at some point in their life, has experienced the attack of the enemy against their finances. Why? Satan has a two-fold purpose to bind and destroy your finances.

1. He wants to block you from receiving God’s Provision.
2. He wants to hinder you from financing the work of God in the nations of the world.
 - If the enemy can cause you to withhold giving your tithe and offerings, then he will succeed in binding your finances. The key to reaping God’s blessings upon your finances is to develop your relationship with Him. Walk in absolute obedience to the divine pattern that He has established in his WORD concerning giving and receiving. The question many Christians ask is: Why is it important for me to give my tithes?
 - In God’s Plan for supernatural provision, He intends the TITHE to be the means whereby He blesses and prospers His people and from which the needs of His house will be supplied.
 - Through the system of giving tithes, there should BE NO LACK IN THE HOUSE OF GOD!
 - God has planned for tithing to be a vital part of your relationship with HIM.
 - Through TITHING, you may enter FELLOWSHIP with God.
 - Rejoice in HIS PRESENCE for HIS BLESSINGS IN YOUR LIFE.

In Malachi 3:8-11, God gave us a COMMAND, A CHALLENGE, AND A PROMISE.

GOD’S COMMAND:

1. Our Tithe, a tenth of all of our income, belongs to the Lord. It is HOLY.
2. It is the precious seed that we MUST sow in order to reap His Promised Blessings.

GOD'S CHALLENGE:

1. God's challenge to you today is to PROVE HIM.
2. He wants you to test Him to see if His promise for blessing is true.
3. God says: Give ME your tithe FIRST. Then PROVE ME to see if I will pour MY blessings upon you.

GOD'S PROMISE:

1. As you give your TITHE, God promises to open the windows of heaven and pour His blessings upon you.
2. He has promised to pour a blessing upon you that there shall not be room enough to receive it (Malachi 3:10).
3. There will be MORE THAN ENOUGH!!! (June 29, 2015) (Bishop Young)

An individual is anyone who is considered the "head of household" or anyone 18 years and older living on their own or anyone who is considered "emancipated" from the parent(s) or guardian(s).

Spouses and children living at home (or attending college) are considered as a part of a family and are afforded the same privilege as the spouse and parent(s).

All active, full-fledge members must sign a code of conduct.

Active/Full-fledged members are afforded (but not limited to) the following:

- (a) Financial assistance in times of need (as necessary)
- (b) Free use of the sanctuary and staff for funeral services of themselves or immediate family member
- (c) Discounted use of facilities for weddings
- (d) Eligibility for and consideration of staff or departmental positions and other appointments
- (e) Full voting privileges in business meetings.

Provisional and Non Active members will not have all the same privileges as an active / full-fledged member.

Section D – Minimal Annualized Tithe Amount

The minimal tithe amount that an individual or family member must give to the local Church in order to be classified as Active/Full-fledge is based on the Department of Health Human Services statistics on the levels of poverty and welfare for individuals and families. Since it is a contradiction of God's Word to consistently and faithfully tithe and "remain" impoverished or in a welfare state as a way of life, the minimal amount that must be given is a tenth of the welfare or poverty level (individual or family).

For example, according to statistics from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, the annual poverty level or welfare state for 2001 was $8,950 for an individual and $17,650 for a family of four (4). Therefore, to be an Active/Full-fledged member, an individual must give a minimum of $895 annually in tithes and a family of four must give a minimum of $1,765.

Code of Dress

We believe the Bible to be the inspired Word of God and thereby is the guide by which man will be saved or will be lost. Paul the Apostle wrote in his Pastoral epistle to Timothy, I Timothy 2:9-10:

"In like manner also, that woman adorn herself in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety. Not with braided hair, or gold, or pearl, or costly; but, which becometh women professing godliness with good works."

Modesty is to be the spirit of all adornment whether it be man or woman. If in our women, there is an absence of shame heartedness, there will also be the absence of shamefacedness. The nature of the being, adorned as a man or woman is a sacred nature. As we believe men/women to be the true guardian of virtue. His/her mannerism, spirit, and temper constitute the defense of virtue. We believe that the way one dresses portrays his mind and character. Our men and women should also dress according to the circumstances such as age, rank, means, and demands of position.

We further believe that our women should not wear clothing which pertains to a man, Deuteronomy 22:5. Likewise, the man should not wear clothing, which pertains to the woman. We believe modest apparel does not mean modesty according to the latest fashion; but, that modesty has a standard we believe in accordance with I Corinthians 11:3-5 "Every man praying or prophesying, having head covered, dishonoureth his head. But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered dishonoureth her head."

I Peter 3:1-7. (4/93)

Code of Dress for Clergy

The Church Calendar begins with Pentecost Sunday and ends with Ascension Sunday. There can be up to twenty-eight Sundays after Pentecost and up to nine Sundays after the Epiphany; but these dates are never in the same year. The "festival" part of the year speaks about "the Savior". The non-festival part of the year addresses "the Saved". Events throughout the year include Pentecost, Advent, Christmas, Epiphany, Lent and Easter.

Ordained Elders

An Elder should wear only two primary colors namely, Black or White. These primary robes may be trimmed with other colors such as purple, green, blue or red. None of the trim colors should be the color of the entire robe vesture.

Bishops & Bishop-Elects

A Bishop should wear robe attire that follows the Church Calendar. This compliance assures the Bishop of wearing and giving compliance to the correct colors to be worn from Pentecost Sunday through Ascension Sunday. Since regular calendar dates are not the same each year, always check your regular calendar to identify the annual dates for church festivals. You may also inquire at a Christian Book Store.

Symbols & Definitions of the Episcopal Office (The Bishop's Vestments for Investiture Celebration)

Bishop Scarf & Tippet is the symbol of the yoked one. The Presiding Bishop wears the Church Seal with the Presiding Bishop Crest affixed to it. The Tippet is the symbol of Jurisdiction. It symbolizes the Bishop's territory or Diocese. The Seal of the Bishop shall be affixed to it. The Bishop's scarf is seven (7") inches wide symbolizing perfection and the Tippet is five (5") inches representing grace.

Cassock is a close-fitting garment, reaching to the feet. It is the robe of a servant. The Bishop wears this garment because Christ instructed us in Matthew 23:11, "But he that is greatest among you shall be your servant."

Chain symbolic of endurance, which emphasizes that the bearer is not a novice. As a gift to the Christ child, it symbolized His king-ship. It should be at least 40" in length from end to end. The chain shall be made of gold representing deity and wealth. Bishops only wear the gold chain with the Pectoral Cross.

Chimere is the sleeveless outer-robe of the Bishop. It is symbolic of the Bishop's Prophetic office. In Elijah's day they called it the Prophet's Mantle.

Cincture is symbolic of the towel with which Jesus girded himself and began to wash the Disciples' feet.

Clergy Those specifically ordained for Divine Service as Deacons, Elders or Bishops. In this sense, the clergy for the Church's hierarchy. Entrance into the clerical state now takes place when a person is ordained deacon. Formerly it was at the time the person received the first tonsure. (Etym. Latin clericus; from Greek kleros, lot, portion; the clergy whose portion is the Lord.)

Clergy Wear: Modern clergy wear, as with modern vesture, has evolved over many centuries. The distinction at one time to be drawn between what was everyday outdoor wear and what was required to be worn in the performance of clergy duties has been clouded by modern conventions. The best known of the robes is a Cassock and Surplice, as readily coupled as 'collar and tie', coat and trousers, 'stockings and shoes, and this relationship is founded upon the fact that, although the garments developed separately, historically, they have usually been worn together.

Collar: This is the symbol of the Christian ambassador that placed his life on the line for the Lord Jesus Christ. Minsters were beheaded in the past for their stand on Christianity. Christian Ambassadors would place a metal plate around the necks and cover it with white cloth; therefore, making it difficult to behead the Christian soldier: it later became general convenient distinction between Church, Law and Academia Representatives.

Cope: The Cope is the second most recognized of the sacred vestments. It is lone and richly ornamental; thus it naturally calls attention to the celebrant who makes use of it. Originally, the Cope was worn over the Chasuble by clerics in procession until the procession reached the inside of the Church so that the clerics would be protected from rain and chilly weather. During the "middle Ages," the Cope developed into a liturgical garment of its own accord, being used at ceremonies other than the Mass. The large capuce or hood that covered the head until the eleventh century, fell into disuse later and soon became only ornamental.

Crozier: A symbol of the Shepherds staff given to Moses as he was exiled from Egypt. It is the symbol of authority and strength. David declared in the Scriptures, "thy rod and thy staff comfort me..."

Mitre: In England, the Mitre was not worn in the church until the Norman Conquest. It derives from the Phrygian worn by Roman freemen to cover their shaved heads and originally was a soft conical cap. It later became lower and “ears” at the side of the head resulted from the absence for stiffening to the cap. By the middle of the twelfth century, the cap was interlined and worn with the ‘ears’ or points, at front and back of the head, and the ribbons and streamers became the infulae of lappets, to be seen at the back of the modern mitre. Popes, Cardinals, and Bishops wear the liturgical headdress. It is removed when the celebrant prays. The points symbolize the cloven tongues on the heads of the disciples on the day of Pentecost and the streamers represent the everlasting living water that Christ offers to the believer.

Pectoral Cross primarily the instrument of suffering on which Christ died and redeemed the world. It is symbolic for whatever pain and endurance that a Christian undergoes. When in civic dress (clerical collar) the cross is put inside the right pocket symbolizing the closeness to the cleric’s heart.

Prelate: A dignitary having jurisdiction in external forum by right of his office. There have been prelates’ “nullius” who presided over the clergy and people of a certain territory not belonging to an established diocese. The name and rank of prelate may also be given to a clergy person as a mark of papal recognition of their service to the Church.

Rochet found in the book of Leviticus. The Rochet is a white ceremonial linen or cotton garment. It is similar to the Surplice, but with two distinct differences. The Rochet, unlike the Surplice, reaches the floor and its sleeves are made like unto a coat or a buffed bell gathered at the wrist. It is symbolic to the Priesthood. As the Priest carries the prayers of the people to God and the Prophet carries the Word of God back to the people, our Bishops stand in a two-fold office as Priest and Prophet. The Rochet is only worn by Bishops.

Ring is symbolic of Royal Son-ship. It is usually signet or jeweled. It is worn on the right hand to signify God-given authority, government, and covenant between God and his servant (the Bishop). No other ring may be worn except a wedding band. Those who wear this ring have committed themselves to Christ and the Church.

Stole: The origin of the Stole is pre-Christian but since the sixth century, it has been prescribed to be worn by all clergy. In the seventeenth century the Orarium or stole, was worn by all ministers celebrating worship services and was worn crossed over in front of the Alb secured in place by the Girdle.

The Sword the Sword symbolizes the Word of God (Ephesians 6:17). The Sword is also the symbol of fortitude. As God’s people, we are called to live in the midst of a world system opposed to the principles of the kingdom of God. Nothing less than a life of fortitude can prevail in this battle.

Zucchetto is the Bishop’s Prayer cap. It is the small round cap worn under the Beretta or Mitre.

Spiritual Awakening

We suggest that all Pastors encourage all members of their congregations to build their spiritual life from the following:

- A. That each member takes with him and in his/her possession each and every day one of God's promises, expressed or implied, to the righteous.
- B. That before each testimony or at any time one appears before the congregation, quote a promise and give the Bible location.
- C. That ministers, missionaries, Deacons, and mothers be asked to quote a promise before starting to speak.

Water Baptism

We believe that water baptism is an ordinance of the church and that it symbolizes the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. We further believe that it is a public confession and sign of a true follower of Jesus Christ. We believe that water baptism should be administered in the Name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins. Jesus said in Matthew 28:19- "Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost." This might sound contradictory, but at this time Jesus had not ascended into heaven, therefore Jesus always gave reverence and made reference unto God as His Heavenly Father prior to His crucifixion and ascension. When Jesus instructed his disciples how to pray, he said, "When thou pray, say Our Father." This phrase is indicative of God's majesty, glory, and holiness which Jesus never failed to acknowledge before His crucifixion.

After Jesus was crucified, we find not one reference where the disciples used the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Acts 1:2 gives us to know that He directed his disciples through the Holy Ghost. The disciples used the name of the Lord Jesus. Colossians 3:17 - "And whatsoever ye do in words or deeds do all in the name of the Lord Jesus." This the disciples did according to Acts 2:38, Acts 8:19, Acts 10:48, Acts 19:5, Romans 6:4, and Ephesians 1:22; 3:14,15.

ARTICLE 22

The Lord's Supper

The Lord's Supper is a sacrament instituted by Jesus Christ on the night before He died that confirms the covenant made with God through the blood of Jesus Christ. It was instituted by Christ himself, who has given an example to do as he has done, which has great force and authority in it. He not only practiced and celebrated it himself, which gave a sufficient sanction to it, but he has commanded it of his apostles and disciples and all succeeding ministers and on all his followers to the end of the world. It is a fulfillment of the eternal covenant of the Passover feast which God commanded the Israelites to observe. The first communion was given to our father Abraham, by Melchizedek, the priest of the Most High God, consisting of bread and wine (Genesis 14:18). Jesus Christ, was "made an High Priest forever after the order of Melchizedek" (Hebrews 6:20). We believe that the Lord's Supper should be administered to all believers that have been baptized in the name of Jesus Christ and that are filled with the Holy Ghost with the evidence of speaking in other tongues (I Corinthians 11:23-30). Also we believe that no one should partake in this sacred ordinance unworthily. (I Corinthians 11:28-30).

Because the Lord's supper was instituted by Christ and celebrated by him, "the same night in which he was betrayed," this shows the very great love of Christ to his church and people and his affectionate concern for them. His sufferings were coming upon him and his soul was exceedingly sorrowful, even unto death - he that was to betray him was at hand. Jesus was just about to be delivered into the hands of sinful men who would put him to death. He was ready to suffer and die for his people. At that time, amidst all his sorrows and in the near approach of his most dreadful sufferings, he thought of his people and provided for them a divine taking of food, spiritual food for their entertainment to the end of the world. This is contained in the words Jesus used at the first institution of the ordinance: "Take, eat, this is my body; drink all of this, for this is my blood; do this in remembrance of me" (Matthew 26:26-27; Luke 22:19). The apostle Paul expressly declares that what he delivered concerning this ordinance, he "received from the Lord" (1 Corinthians 11:23). Thus, it is not something he invented, nor did he receive it of men, nor was taught it, but he had it by the revelation of Christ.

The bread represents the broken body of Jesus Christ, and the wine represents the blood that He shed for our redemption. We believe that water should not be served as blood, but wine only should be served. The Lord's Supper may be administered as often as one deems necessary (I Corinthians 11:25-27), in order to avoid administering the Lord's Supper as a monthly ritual or pious habit that no longer represents the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ and loses its significance as the redemption of our sins.

Note: We recognize the Lord's Supper to be the highest sacrament given to the New Testament church directly from the Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore we advise that all Pastors prepare believers for the Lord's Supper prior to the date of sacrament in the following manner; repentance, forgiveness, reconciliation, confession, consecration, fasting, and praying weeks before the actual administration of the sacrament.

All Pastors shall use non-fermented wine for Communion. (4/02) (04/05)

ARTICLE 23

Feet Washing

We believe that foot washing is a part of the Lord's Supper and should at no time be left out, except in certain circumstances, as our Lord Himself gave an example on the night of the sacrificial supper. We believe it symbolizes humility and brotherly love to each other (St. John 13:13-15). The procedure for feet washing shall be followed by each Pastor as given in St. John 13:2-5.

Jesus instituted the ordinance of feet washing as a preparation for participation in the Lord's Supper. (John 13:4, 5, 12-17), "So he [Jesus] got up from the supper table, took off his robe, wrapped a towel around his loins, poured water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel he had around him. . . . After washing their feet, he put on his robe again and sat down and asked, 'Do you understand what I was doing? You call me "Master" and "Lord," and you do well to say it, for it is true. And since I, the Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you ought to wash each other's feet. I have given you an example to follow: do as I have done to you. How true it is that a servant is not greater than his master. Nor is the messenger more important than the one who sends him. You know these things—now do them! That is the path of blessing.' "

The ordinance of feet washing was designed to teach the disciples (and us) humility and to serve others. (Matthew 20:25-28, NIV). "Jesus called them [the disciples] together and said, 'You know that the rulers of the Gentiles lord it over them, and their high officials exercise authority over them. Not so with you. Instead, whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wants to be first must be your slave—just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.' "

Jesus set the example of feet washing and tells us to do likewise. Many religious leaders, ministers, and Pastors today need to be "an example of the believers" and carry out the ordinance that Jesus said we ought to do. "But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only...." "If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them."

Let us humble ourselves before God and our fellow man, and obey the command of our blessed Lord. "If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you. Verily, verily, I say unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him. If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them."

Civil Laws

The Church of God (Pentecostal), Incorporated believes and teaches that all citizens must obey the civil authorities as long as their ruling is not against our belief in Christ, the eternal power of God (Romans 13:1-15).

This includes and is not limited to the amendments to item 10 in our certificate of incorporation, regarding same sex unions or same sex marriages. (Approved February 23, 2015)

Approved - 04/18/08

Section A: Statement of Faith-General

We accept the Bible as the inspired Word of God as the ultimate authority in matters of faith, doctrine and Christian living.

Section B: Marriage

Marriage is a biblical instruction established by God as clearly described in the scriptures. This Church recognizes that marriage is the uniting of one man and one woman in covenant commitment for a lifetime. Accordingly, this Church, its Pastors, Elders, Ministers, staff and members will not participate in same sex unions or same sex marriages, nor shall its property or resources be used for such purposes.

Marriage Policy

Marriage is a union ordained by God. It was first instituted by God in the early chapters of Genesis, codified in the Levitical law, the Old Testament Prophets compared it to a relationship between God and his people, examples of it are in the historical narratives, and, the wisdom literature discusses the unique unity of this relationship. Jesus explained the original intention and core elements of marriage, and several New Testament Epistles give explicit instructions on this union. Marriage is a typology of Christ and the Church. As such, the Church views marriage as a profound spiritual institution established by God. Due to the importance of marriage in the biblical witness, this church adopts the following policy.

Clergy

1. Only duly ordained clergy shall officiate at marriage ceremonies conducted on church property.
2. Clergy employed by the church shall be subject to dismissal and/or loss of ordination for officiating a same gender marriage ceremony.

Applicants

1. Applicants wishing to have a ceremony performed by a member of the clergy employed by the church, or to use the church facilities, shall affirm their agreement with the Articles of Faith and shall conduct themselves in a manner that is consistent therewith.

Premises

1. Any marriage performed on church premises shall be officiated by a member of the clergy.
2. Clergy officiating marriage ceremonies on church premises, whether or not employed by the church, shall affirm their agreement with the Articles of Faith and shall conduct themselves in a manner that is consistent therewith.
3. The clergy assigned by the church to implement the procedures contained in this Marriage Policy may, in his or her sole discretion, decline to make church facilities available for, and/or decline to officiate at, a ceremony when, in his or her judgment, there are significant concerns that one or both of the applicants may not be qualified to enter into the sacred bond of marriage for theological, doctrinal, moral or legal reasons.

Section B – Evangelists and Evangelism

God's method of saving men is to use saved men to save lost men. There is no higher calling, nor is there any greater commission, than that which the Lord of the harvest has given unto His followers: to go into the harvest of the Lord and preach repentance and remission of sins in His name to all nations.

Evangelism defined - Evangelism comes from the word evangel. Evangel is the message or "good news" of salvation through Christ, that atonement has been made unto God, and that sinners may be reconciled unto God, and be saved from sin. The good news is the gospel story that never grows old though over and over it is told. Evangelism has to do with the preaching or spreading of the gospel. This is the only message worth preaching.

Evangelism and Spirituality are two elements that are the forerunner of prosperity. History proves these facts to be true. Sin, idolatry and apostasy are the forerunners of poverty, sorrow, and judgment. The world has always made the best progress after a great revival.

The Power of the Gospel and the preaching of the Word of the Lord are powerful forces for good in the world. These will bring great changes, lift the standard of morals, and cause people to become good and honest citizens. When the church has made the best progress in evangelizing and experienced great revivals, then great material blessings and prosperity followed.

God calls Evangelists - The gift of an Evangelist is more than a divine enablement or implement; it includes this and the man himself. Evangelists, Pastors, and teachers are the grant of the Son of God unto the churches. "He gave gifts unto men." These gifts are men who have consecrated and yielded their lives unto the Lord, who has accepted them, called them to this ministry and in turn has given these men back unto men to rescue more men. They are a two-fold gift.

The Bible teacher has been called to teach, instruct and indoctrinate preachers, Evangelists and Pastors so they will preach sound doctrine that will lead to a right belief and right conduct. Evangelists are called to preach so as to make converts and Christians out of sinners. Then it is the Pastor's duty to feed them and give them the proper spiritual care so that they will become established and grow into maturity.

Great Responsibilities and Privileges go with the call of an Evangelist. An Evangelist is a messenger to the gospel, traveling preacher and a revivalist. The privilege to evangelize or to preach the gospel is not granted unto angels, neither to kings or great men of the earth. It has been remarked that if the commission were given to the angels to evangelize this world, all heaven would be empty of angels in a few minutes, and they would be at the greatest task in which anyone could be engaged.

The Ideal Evangelist is the man who has been truly saved and then been baptized with the Holy Ghost. His calling is not his own, but the Lord of the Harvest has called him to labor in the harvest of the Lord.

The ideal Evangelist is true to his calling. His life, time and talents are not his own, they belong to God and others.

The Cause for Apostasy - Ministers and the ministry, to a large degree, are to blame for the oncoming apostasy. Apostasy sets in with the giving up of sound doctrine and a letting down of spirituality. Where there is no light, there is darkness, but where there is light, darkness cannot abide. If every minister would preach one hundred cents to a dollar, sixteen ounces to a pound, thirty-six inches to a yard, (that is, a full gospel), the doctrines of sin, repentance, salvation, judgment, heaven and hell; cease to preach a belittled gospel and crowd his sermons full of the gospel and Christ, fewer people would go to hell and more would be washed and cleansed in the blood of the Lamb and go to heaven.

Being too easily satisfied is the danger of many Evangelists. In preaching, the Evangelist cannot be satisfied unless some fruits appear in his work.

Section C – Passion and Compassion For The Lost

Every soul winner needs passion and compassion for the lost. Without these, the Evangelist or worker will not be moved to action by love, pity, or a concern, but will be indifferent and cold. A passion for souls and a compassion for the lost are essential. An Evangelist has passion and compassion that is not subjective but objective. To bear a burden for souls is not light or an easy matter. Although it brings sorrow and heaviness, it is a sorrow that is a pleasure, which brings great joy and blessed results.

Passion and Compassion Defined. Passion refers to Christ's sufferings, including His agony in Gethsemane and His death on the Cross. The Bible usage of the word passion means suffering. The word compassion means to have the bowels yearning and an inward affection that is an inward feeling of pity and mercy, toward the suffering. Nine times we read of Christ being moved with compassion.

From the dictionary, we learn that passion means not only suffering, but to be extremely agitated, especially with grief and sorrow.

Compassion is the feeling or emotion when a person is moved by the sufferings or distress of another and by the desire to relieve it. Compassion is passion in action. The passion or suffering and death of Christ were vicarious. His compassion moved Him to do something. We may be possessed with a passion and compassion, but our suffering cannot be vicarious.

Christ's Love For Souls. He came to seek and to save the lost. This was the great object of His earthly mission. He died to save lost men. Christ was ever on the watch for opportunities to save perishing men. He found His joy and satisfaction in saving souls. In the work of saving souls, He forgot weariness, hunger, and thirst. He rejoiced with great joy over lost souls that were found. He grieved with great grief over lost souls that refused to be saved.

The Christian must consider several things in order to be successful in soul winning. He must have a heaven-born love for souls. He must have a desire to see others saved, even as he himself desires to be saved. He must realize the infinite value of a soul. He must have a proper value of life. He must have a right estimate of the value of time. He must, to some degree, realize the price paid for the redemption of souls. He needs to be tremendously impressed with the endlessness of eternity. He needs to be possessed with a burden and a passion, which will give him no rest until he leads some to Christ.

DOCTRINE

WHAT IS THE CHURCH?

The church is the body of Christ. And by its being the body of Christ, necessarily includes all his members.

"And hath put all things under His feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church, which is his body, the fullness of him that filleth all in all." Ephesians 1:22, 23

"And He is the head of the body, the church: who is things he might have pre-eminence." Colossians 1:18-19

"Who now rejoicing my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sakes, which is the church." Colossians 1:24

WHO IS THE FOUNDER OF THE CHURCH?

Jesus Christ.

"For this man (Christ Jesus) was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, in as much as he that builded the house hath more honor than the house. For every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things is God." Hebrews 3:3-4.

"Feed the Church of God, which hath He purchased with His own blood." Acts 20:28.

"Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; that He might sanctify and cleanse it by the washing of water by the Word, that he might present it to Himself a glorious church, holy and without blemish." Ephesians 5:25-27

"Upon this rock I will build my church and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it." Matthew 16:18.

WHEN WAS THE CHURCH BUILT?

The coming of the Holy Ghost was the point of time when the Church was really built, and set in order, as seen in I Corinthians 12:6, 11-13, 18, 24, 28-29.

WHO IS ITS FOUNDATION?

"Therefore thus saith the Lord God, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner-stone, a sure foundation; he that believeth shall not make hast." Isaiah 28:16.

"For other foundations can no man lay than what is laid, which is Jesus Christ." I Corinthians 3:11

"And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and Prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner-stone; in whom all the building fitly framed together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord." Ephesians 2:20-21

WHO IS THE HEAD OF THE CHURCH?

The head of an institution is its lawmaker. "For the Lord is our judge, the Lord is our lawgiver, the Lord is our king; He will save us." Isaiah 33:22. "There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy." James 4:12.

WHAT IS THE DOOR OF THE CHURCH?

Christ is the door of the church, and salvation the mode of induction, and His door stands open continually, and no man can shut.

"Then said Jesus unto them again, verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep....I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture." John 10:7, 9.

"I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: thou hast little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name." Revelation 3:8

"For through him we both have access by one spirit unto the Father." Ephesians 2:18.

WHO TAKES MEMBERSHIP INTO THE CHURCH?

The Lord adds to the invisible church and the Pastor takes in membership into the visible church. Every believer should be a member of or identified with a congregation or church.

"And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart. Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved." Acts 2:46-47.

"And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith." Acts 6:7

"But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him." I Corinthians 12:18

"For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one spirit." I Corinthians 12:13.

WHO ARE MEMBERS OF THE CHURCH?

1. The Invisible Church - Those who are born of the Spirit and have made a total commitment to Christ, which includes repentance, water baptism in Jesus name, and filled with the Holy Spirit.
2. The Visible Church - All baptized believers. Ephesians 3:15, 2:19; I John 5:18; I John 3:8-10.

WHO ORGANIZES THE CHURCH?

Christ organized the Church and the Holy Ghost is carrying on in the earth the organized body of Christ and its affairs.

"For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit; To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; to another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another the discerning of spirits; to another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues: but all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will. I Corinthians 12 8-11.

"Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular. And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily Prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts for healing, helps, governments, diversities of tongues." I Corinthians 12:27-28.

"Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and unto all the flock, over which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the Church of God, which He hath purchased with His own blood." Acts 20:28

I Corinthians 3:5-6; Ephesians 4:10-13; I Corinthians 12:18, 24, 25.

HOW MANY CHURCHES DOES GOD HAVE?

One.

"Other sheep (Gentiles) I have, which are not of this fold (not Jews): them also I must bring.....and there shall be one fold (church), and one shepherd." John 10:16.

"For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office: so we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another." Romans 12:4-5

"For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also Christ. For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. But now are they many members, yet but one body." I Corinthians 12:12, 13, 20. I Peter 1:18-23, Ephesians 2:14-16; 4:4-6, Colossians 3:15.

DOES THE BIBLE TEACH THE UNITY OF ALL BELIEVERS?

WHEN ARE YOU SAVED?

One is not saved or whole in God until he has received the baptism of the Holy Ghost. Prior to the baptism, the believer has been forgiven from sin and should be sanctified. The Holy Ghost is actually our starting point in this holy way. It means that we have POWER to resist the devil, TONGUES to build us up spiritually, and LOVE to share CHRIST. Acts 1:8, 2:38, 2:4, Luke 24:49.

WHAT IS THE FIRST STEP FOR AN INDIVIDUAL TO BE SAVED?

The individual must HEAR the Word of God. Hearing the Word means that the individuals are listening carefully to what is said.

He acknowledges his wrong and sees himself as a sinner...insufficient and needing the help of God. Romans 10:14.

BASIC CHURCH DOCTRINE

- Jesus is the Son of God, Matthew 17:5, Luke 1:35, John 10:36.
- Jesus became the Son of Man that He might make us the Sons of God. Hebrews 2:9-18.
- The Baptism of the Holy Ghost is confirmed by tongues, power, and love. Tongues are an evidence to them that believe, it is the initial evidence.
- Modesty is to be the spirit of all adornment whether it be man or woman. The same spirit that saves will teach you how to dress if you will listen to His voice.
- Man must be born again of the Water and Spirit or he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.
- In accordance with the scripture, Water Baptism should be administered in the name of the Lord Jesus. Acts 2:38; 10:48; 8:16-19; Act 19:5; Romans 6:4; Ephesians 1:22; Colossians 3:17; Acts 1:2.
- The Lord's Supper should be administered to all believers as a commendation of our Lord's death, burial, and resurrection. I Corinthians 11:23-30. As a symbol of humility and brotherly love, feet washing is a part of the Lord's Supper. John 13:4-5
- For Bible Education, all believers should attend Sunday School and Bible Class regularly.
- To provide time for the youth to air their understanding of God's Holy Word and learn at their level, a Young People's Christian Study should be functioning in each church. This may also be a youth hour. Doctrine and History of The Church of God Pentecostal, Inc. should be taught and understood.
- Our women may labor with us in the Gospel. They should be teachers of the word, sharing the goodness of Christ and His salvation. Our women may start missions through the leading of the Lord and the leadership of the nearest Bishop, Overseer, or Pastor.
- Believers of God are not caught up in the cares of secret orders and lodges. John 7:4; Matthew 5:34-35; James 5:12.

WHAT IS GOD'S STANDARD OF SALVATION

Holiness is the standard of God's salvation as God has said "Be ye Holy for I am Holy" Leviticus 20:7, as God has chosen us that we should be Holy and without blame before Him in love, thus admonish by the apostles that we should be perfect even as our Heavenly Father is perfect.

Ephesians 1:4, Colossians 1:22, I Peter 1:15-16, Hebrews 12:14.

WHOSE NAMES ARE BLOTTED OUT AND WHY?

Those who sin against God are to be brought before the council for judgment and, if proven guilty, they are put from among us. The time has come that judgment begins at the House of God.

I Peter 4:17; Exodus 12:33; I Corinthians 5:1-3; 5:9-11.

HOW MAY SINS BE FORGIVEN?

The only grounds upon which God will forgive sins is that the sinner repents of his sins with godly sorrow and then submit to the water baptism in the Name of Jesus for the remission of sins. He will then receive the gift of the Holy Ghost.

Acts 2:38; Psalms 51:17; Luke 24:47; Mark 16:16.

WHAT IS THE CHURCH'S POSITION ON A MARRIED SAINT DIVORCING HIS/HER MATE WHEN ADULTERY IS INVOLVED THEN MARRIES ANOTHER SAINT?

CAN A PERSON COMMIT SIN AND REGAIN FELLOWSHIP WITH GOD WITHOUT SEEKING GOD FOR THE BAPTISM OF THE HOLY GHOST AS HE DID IN THE BEGINNING?

Yes, if a person commit a sin and repent as well as ask for forgiveness from the person with whom he committed the sin and the person receives laying on of hands by the Pastor and/or leaders or brethren (believers), that person is at that moment restored back into fellowship with God and with the Body of Christ if he repents quickly. Galatians 6:1-3.

SHOULD A PERSON WHO HAS LOST FELLOWSHIP WITH GOD CONTINUE TO HOLD "CHURCH TITLES AND POSITIONS"?

No, when a person has been restored, there should be some healing time before refilling a certain position. Hebrews 10:26.

WHAT ARE THE VIEWS OF THE CHURCH CONCERNING PREDESTINATION? AND EXPLAIN THE FOLLOWING SCRIPTURES: ROMANS 8:28-30, 9:17-24; PROVERBS 16:4

God knows everything (He's all-knowing) and whatever is going to happen, God knows about it. The saints are to live holy by faith. When God speaks of predestination, the only person that he has pre-doomed is Matthew 25:41. Judas was in the position and he chose to be the one to betray Christ and to be eternally lost.

ABORTION

The COGP do not condone abortion, voluntary and involuntary (I Timothy 2:15, Proverbs 6:16-18) for we believe that life begins at conception and to destroy life that is unborn constitutes murder for which the scripture says is sin: also, the pill or any form of contraceptive. (4/12/89)

SADOMASOCHISM

The COGP does not condone sexual perversion in any form, anal or oral sex, masturbation or sadist masochist - any form of sex that is not in the order for which God has ordained for the purpose of reproduction and expressing love to your married partner. (Ephesians 5:3-5, Romans 1:24) (4/12/89)
